RETURNED TO THE REFORM SCHOOL.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a colored boy named Harry Carter, who had been arrested by Officers Young and Knight at the instance of a colored woman named Mary Reynolds, who alleged that the boy entered her house some time after one o'clock this morning, and went to an upper room and took $1.70 from her pocketbook. The accused then went to the woman's larder and ate everything he found. Carter later proceeded to a pool room in the southern section of the city and fell asleep. The boy was brought before the Police Court this morning when it was stated a new pack of cards had been found in his pocket. It was also shown that Carter has a record in the reform school for stealing from the school. He had been arrested on the charge of forgery, and other offenses committed some time ago were urged against him. Justice Caton ordered him to be returned to the reform school.

WOULD BAR PICTURES.

Mayor Paff is in accord with the authorities of other cities who are averse to permitting pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight to be exhibited. He has examined the laws and will forbid the importation of the films to this city if it is in his power. It was stated in one of the churches last night that the ministers of Alexandria would be called upon to unite in a protest against the exhibition of the pictures in this city. The Mayor will prohibit not only the pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight but those of all prize fights. He says the pictures would not be exhibited in Washington and should they be shown in Alexandria the crowd of roughs that would come here to see them would probably cause the police much trouble.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Halicot Brown and George Randolph, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct, had their case postponed until Saturday. James Sparrow, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear. Scott, of Battery D, Third Field Artillery, was stationed during the row, and L. S. Baker, of Falls Church, was struck over the right eye and seriously injured. After the fight the darkies left the car and stoned it. The trouble originated in an argument over the recent prize fight.

DEATH OF MISS WESTON.

Miss Maribel Weston, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. T. P. Weston, living on Queen street, died at the Alexandria Hospital last night. The circumstances in connection with her death are distressing. About a week ago a tiny pimple appeared on Miss Weston's chin, which was supposed to have been caused by the bite of an insect. Miss Weston rubbed it at times when her chin became so much inflamed that a physician who had been called advised her removal to the Alexandria Hospital. Despite all the efforts of medical science, which included operations on the inflamed skin, blood poisoning developed and her death followed last night. The funeral will take place from St. Paul's Church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SHOE CUTTERS WIN.

In an interesting game of ball played on the north Alfred street grounds yesterday the Paff Shoe Company nine defeated Porters' Hobfrow Sluggers by a score of 9 to 4. ## After Tax Dodgers.

Chicago, July 7.—Chicago tax ferrets have a doomsday book, and when the news leaked out today there was consternation among the wealthy tax dodgers. The book is a mammoth book, filled with newspaper clippings. Whenever there is a big ball in the 400 the experts of the board of review clip all the accounts telling of diamond tiaras, brooches, stomachers and rings, pearl pendants and ropes that adorned Mrs. G. W. Whitawad and Mrs. Millionbucks. Clippings showing the distribution of bequests, payments of alienation and damage suits and purchases of mansions have also found their way into the doomsday book alongside the list of wedding presents received by June brides.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 7.—The stock market this morning failed to maintain the display that marked the late trading yesterday, and after opening irregular, a heavier tone developed, resulting in a downward movement all around. At the end of fifteen minutes an upward movement in Reading induced general buying.

Although there were some recessions in the late forenoon from the highest range of the first hour, the market held firm in tone.

New York, July 7.—After the early irregularity the market became extremely active and strong. Reading advanced to 14 and other important railroads and leading industrial made gains of one to two points.

Fire at Bluemont.

Bluemont, Va., July 7.—Twenty-two Washington guests at the Blue Ridge Inn, owned by Jules Demomet, of Washington, narrowly escaped death when the inn was burned to the ground just after midnight.

The blaze started in the laundry of the hotel, and gained headway before the guests were awakened. In the rear of the building the stairways were cut off by smoke, and several of the guests were rescued from the windows. Several women who jumped were uninjured. The damage is estimated at from $25,000 to $45,000.

The hotel will be rebuilt immediately, according to a statement given out by Mr. Demomet today.

A Young Women's Experience.

Belleville, Kans., July 7.—Rescued from a freight train by three tramps and turned over to the local police, Beatrice Fanning, an attractive 19-year-old girl, of Toledo, Ohio, told the officers today a pitiful story of leaving her home with a man whom she said was Cameron Keener also, of Toledo, of abuse at the hands of the young man, and of being forced to beat her way on freight trains disguised as a man, until rescued. At Topeka, the girl told the police, she tried to get away but Keener beat and choked her. At Manhattan, Kans., three men who were beating their way to the Kansas wheat fields, got into the freight train with the couple.

The girl told one of them, Charles Evans, that she was a girl and wanted to get away. Evans told the other men and when the party got off in the Belleville yards, the three men attacked Keener who fled and has not been seen since. To the police here Miss Fanning said today: "Cameron boarded at our house in Toledo. We became engaged and Cameron said he wanted to be married at the home of his mother in Steamboat Springs, Colo. We left home a month ago.

"I learned he did not intend to marry me, and tried to escape at East St. Louis, Ill. He took my clothes and gave me some of his to wear. After we left St. Louis we beat our way on freight trains. He beat me at Topeka, and then I did not care whether he killed me or not, so I told."

The Passing of Jeffries.

San Francisco, July 7.—Within twenty-four hours James J. Jeffries will have disappeared into the obscurity of his Alhalla ranch, near Los Angeles, never to emerge again as "the hope of the white race," or for any other pugilistic reason. His return to the ranch will signal the ringing down of the final curtain on the career of one of the greatest lights in the history of the prize ring.

Jeffries will leave Oakland tonight and go direct to his ranch without stop. Within a week he expects to be leading his old life of hunting and fishing from which he was "called" more than a year ago when Jack Johnson put the "quieten" on Tommy Burns at Ruchcutters Bay, Australia.

Jeffries remained in seclusion all day today, refusing to see a single visitor, including some of his most intimate friends. He is sullen and silent and it is said goes in a wild rage whenever the Reno fight is mentioned in his presence.

Riot Averted.

Cincinnati, July 7.—John William, a negro of Lexington, Ky., was arrested early today after he had attacked and beaten Mrs. Katherine Perry, white, in her own home. A race riot threatened before the negro was locked up on a charge of house breaking. The negro entered the Perry home through an open window.

When he was led through the streets by the policemen that captured him, a crowd of negroes collected and demanded the release of Williams, brandishing clubs and knives. White men gathered and the policemen had difficulty in keeping them from lynching the negroes. Both blacks and whites were scattered when the police drew revolvers and charged the mob.

Herbert Latham broke the world's aeroplane record for 200 kilometers at Rheims, today making the distance 124.2 miles, in 2 hours and 46 minutes.

Airships Collide.

Rheims, July 7.—With the air full of aeroplanes, two accidents from collisions occurred during the meet here today. At one time 22 machines were swooping over the Betheny Plain.

The first accident was when the machine of the Belgian Kinet bumped into the bi-plane of the Russian Petrowski. The latter machine fell to the ground and was badly damaged, though Petrowski escaped with a few slight bruises. A little later an American named Weymann bumped into the machine of a German named Lindhsinter. The two aeroplanes fell to the ground from a considerable height and were wrecked. Weymann landed on his feet unhurt, while Lindhsinter twisted an ankle.
